

Corvettes and Caffeine

Saturday June 6th, 2015

Rain in Phoenix? Rain on the first Saturday of June?? It was a Storm for the Record Books...a 'Hundred Year' Storm!!!

Yet, a few Brave Souls ventured out into the driving rain and remnants of Tropical Storm Andres. Life threatening temperatures in the 90's, crippling humidity in the double digits and the threat on having to wash the Corvette (Again)!!

We have always said Corvettes and Caffeine is a Rain or Shine (or Holiday) event and Saturday was only the second time we have had sprinkles and this one was over by 7am.

We have to thank the Diehards, the 'Usual Suspects' and the rest of our supporters for braving the elements to come out for our Corvettes and Caffeine.

We had an excellent turnout from DCA (Desert Corvette Association), Scottsdale Corvette Club and Corvette Club of Arizona. In spite of
